

Please do not overturn Indiana law regarding "no call" legislation. The Indiana "No Call" law is one of the best laws enacted in recent memory. It protects are privacy and that is important in these days of dwindling privacy rights. We should have the right to reject unwanted phone calls. The Indiana law provides that and we are grateful for it. Thank you.